*CALL TO WORSHIP Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd,

I shall not want.

He makes me lie down in green pastures; he leads me beside still waters;

he restores my soul.

He leads me in right paths

for his name's sake.

Even though I walk through the darkest valley,

I fear no evil; for you are with me;

your rod and your staff—

they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil;

my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life,

and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD

my whole life long.

RESPONSIVE CALL TO PRAYER:

Christian Education is a product of so many different activities.

Teachers who prepare lessons and guide students are an important part of this process.

We deeply appreciate all of you, and all of those in the past, who have taken the time to prepare lessons and activities for our classes.

Your work has provided us with invaluable training that has and will take us through difficult times.

The words and pictures of Sunday School have been the building blocks on which our faith has been constructed. But those words and pictures have not just been about the Bible of Jesus and the disciples...

Our pictures are also made up of remembrances of our teachers and how we saw them live.

Like those in Joppa who were so moved by the death of Dorcas, this kindly seamstress, whose love was literally stitched into the fabric of this community.

Lord God, Be with our teachers, and the teacher in us as well. May we always be aware of the importance of the need for consistency between what we say and do. Amen.
