Call to Worship

God is our strength and our salvation;
let everything that breathes praise our God!

This is the day that God has made;
we will rejoice and be glad in it!

Praise God for mighty deeds and extravagant love.
Praise God for loving care and answered prayer.

We will give thanks this day, for God is good.
The steadfast love of God endures forever.

Grace to you and peace from the One who is and who was and who is to come.

ALL-We are witnesses to the God who acts.

We are here to offer our worship and praise.

SERMON NOTES

Series: “Spiritual Truths From God’s Garden”

Message: “The Way of Obedience”

Text: 1 Samuel 15:22; Mark 14:32-42

I. Introduction

In the Garden of Eden the disobedience of Adam and Eve plunged mankind into the misery of sin. In the Garden of Gethsemane the obedience of Jesus agreeing to the Fathers eternal place of Redemption brought about Salvation from sin. This morning I’d like for us to consider Jesus’ obedience and to see what His example of obedience has to pass along to us.

II. The Way of Obedience.

A. The Way of Obedience is the way of Jesus.

B. The Way of Obedience is empowered by Prayer.

C. The Way of Obedience brings about God’s ultimate good for all involved.

III. Conclusion

Call to Worship

Arise, people of God, to greet the One who calls us;
come alive to the Spirit's energy among us.

God awakens us and restores our souls.

Surely God's goodness and mercy are with us here.

The Shepherd is calling us to new ventures.

We are invited to a higher quality of life.

We will not fear to walk through shadowed valleys.

God's love in Christ is with us everywhere.

Come to drink from springs of living water.

Gather to find comfort and blessing here.

All-Surely God will guide our search for truth.

We seek eternal values within our daily walks.

SERMON NOTES

Series: “Spiritual Truths From God’s Garden”

Message: “Lessons From a Garden Tomb”

Text: Psalm 23:1-6; John 19:38-42

I. Introduction

This morning as we continue our tour of Key Biblical Gardens, we come to the garden housing our Lord’s tomb from which He would rise. As we consider this garden, I’d like for us to see what lessons it has to pass on to us.

II. Lesson From the Garden of the Tomb.

A. The Garden of the Tomb declares the promise of new and eternal life.

B. The Garden of the Tomb declares the promise of Christ’s abiding presence even in the dark times of life.

C. The Garden of the Tomb declares the promise of a sovereign God causing good to come from bad.

Call to Worship

Come to praise God, all you faithful people!
Come, for God welcomes you and offers to draw close.

Praise to God, who rules over all the earth

Praise to God, who is as near as our next breath.

Sun and moon and stars shine in praise to God.
God created them and established for each a place.

God has a place for us in this world;
we have come that God may instruct and equip us.

Mountains and hills, trees and animals praise God.
Let all the rulers of the earth do so as well.

All-God provides abundantly for our needs.
God makes of one family all who dwell on earth.

SERMON NOTES

Series: “Spiritual Truths From God’s Garden”

Message: “Paradise Lost... Paradise Restored”

Text: Genesis 3:17-24; Revelation 22: 1-5

I. Introduction

In the Garden of Eden, we witnessed a paradise lost, but in the New Jerusalem of Heaven we see a paradise restored. A restoration made possible by the work of Jesus upon our behalf. The truth is our God is in the restoration business. This morning I’d like for us to consider what it means for God to be in the restoration business.

II. What does it mean for God to be in the Restoration Business?

- A. First, God being in the restoration business restores our relationship with Him.

- B. Secondly, God being in the restoration business will restore us to our former glory.

- C. Thirdly, God being in the restoration business entrusts us with a message of Hope.

Welcome and Announcements

Prelude: "God of Our Fathers" Martha Wylie, Flute

Call to Worship

Come to this place of prayer; God is calling us.
Come, all who are burdened; there is healing here.

We have come to hear the Word of God.

We have brought with us all that weighs us down.

Let voices of praise greet the One who calls us.
Be glad together and sing for joy.

Our hearts respond with hope for a new day.

Our voices join in thankful prayers and praise.

God reigns among us and fills the world with light.
We are invited to make our home with the living God.

All-May God's ways be known within and among us.

May God guide all nations in ways of peace.
