

OUR WORSHIP OF THE LORD March 6, 2022
Pastor: Reverend William Hough
Organist/Choir Director: Joyce Keedy

Welcome and Announcements

Prelude: “Christian Hearts, in Love United”
Martha Wylie, Flute

Call to Worship

We come together, a community of faith.

We have gathered to talk and listen to our God.

May our faces shine in anticipation.

Our God has invited us to this moment of meeting.

We share in a new covenant of promise and hope.

Our spirits have been set free for worship and praise.

We come with boldness to encounter our Creator.

We assemble here, eager to be changed by God.

Our fears melt into awe and wonder before God.

Our failures become opportunities for learning.

All-Let us praise God’s holy name in chorus.

Let us share in the glory of life. What a Gift!

SERMON NOTES

Series: “Words From The Cross”

Title: “We Are Family”

Text: Deuteronomy 7:6-8; John 19:25-27

I. Introduction

Throughout the Scriptures the community of the faithful have enjoyed a close relationship with God and fellow believers. In the Old Testament Israel was referred to as the people of God and in the New Testament believers are considered the Family of God.

This morning as we reflect upon the third of Jesus’s Seven Sayings from the cross, I’d like for us to see what it means to be a member of God’s Family.

II. What it means to be a part of God’s Family.

- A. To be a member of God’s family is to have God as one’s Heavenly Father.

- B. To be a member of God’s family is to have fellow believers as brothers and sisters.

- C. To be a member of God’s family is to be a co-heir with Christ.

Call to Worship

Gather to remember and share stories of faith;
rejoice in the goodness of the loving God.

Before our stories began, there was God;
through all our days, God walks with us.

Worship the one who gives and sustains life;
sing praises to the one who is our refuge.

There is no place we can go where God is not;
amid life’s terrors, God’s promises hold true.

Delight in God, whose protection we enjoy;
dance with the God, who frees us for new possibilities.

All-We call out to God, expecting to be heard;
we listen, knowing there is truth to be received.

Title: “The Savior Who Walks In Our Shoes”

Text: Psalm 22: 1-18; Matthew 27: 45, 46

I. Introduction

In the words, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”, we find a Savior who walks in our shoes, a Savior who is fully acquainted with the human experience. This morning I’d like for us to consider what it means to have a Savior who walks in our shoes.

II. What does it mean to have a Savior who walks in our shoes?

- A. First of all, a Savior who walks in our shoes understands our struggles.

- B. Secondly, a Savior who walks in our shoes knows what we need.

- C. Thirdly, a Savior who walks in our shoes can be trusted with our prayers.

Call to Worship

God summons us to wake up and see.
Light has come to lead us to all that is good.

Our eyes have been opened to God’s goodness.

We seek to live as children of light.

God sees beyond our outward appearance.

God knows the intent of our hearts.

We are here to find out what is pleasing to God.

We want to know what is right and true.

God listens to all who worship sincerely.

Praise God with openness and obedience.

All-We seek to know and follow God’s will.

This is a day to do the works of God.

SERMON NOTES

Series: “Words From The Cross”

Title: “The Secret to a Satisfied Soul”

Text: Psalm 31:1-5; Luke 23:44-49

I. Introduction

In a world full of trials and adversities we all long for an inner peace and confidence which can sustain us, a satisfied soul which, grants inner strength. In short, we all desire the same satisfied soul our Lord Jesus demonstrates with the words, “Father into your hands I commit my spirit.” This morning I’d like for us to consider the question, “What is the secret to a satisfied soul?”

The secret to maintaining a satisfied soul.

- A. The first secret to a satisfied soul is to remember God is sovereign.

- B. The second secret to a satisfied soul is to seek to obey the Lord.

- C. The third secret to a satisfied soul is to maintain one’s prayer life.

Call to Worship

Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters.

You who have no money, come, buy, and eat!

Our souls thirst for God in a dry and weary land.

We seek God's power and glory in the sanctuary.

Listen carefully to God and eat what is good;

delight yourselves in the rich food God provides.

Here our souls are satisfied as with a rich feast.

Together our mouths praise God with joyful lips.

God offers us steadfast love and a covenant relationship.

We are called to be faithful witnesses and leaders.

All-We have come to meditate on the living God.

We seek inspiration and empowerment to do what God asks.

SERMON NOTES

Series: "Words From The Cross"

Title: "Breaking the Tape"

Text: Genesis 22:1-14; John 19:29,30

Introduction

There is nothing like the excitement of seeing a runner break tape at the finish line. A victorious moment culminating all the hours of training the runner went through. When Jesus cried out, "It is Finished," from the cross, it was a joyful shout of victory, a breaking of the tape at the finish line of His mission of salvation.

This morning I'd like for us to see what exactly is finished in Jesus' work of salvation on our behalf.

What is finished in Jesus's finished mission of salvation.

- A. In Jesus' work upon the cross mankind's search for salvation is finished.

- B. In Jesus' work upon the cross guilt over confessed sin is finished.

- C. In Jesus' work upon the cross the need for further revelation is finished.
