Pastor: Reverend William Hough
Organist/Choir Director: Joyce Keedy

Welcome and Announcements

Pentecostal Sunday

Prelude: "Jesus at Your Holy Table"
Martha Wylie, Flute

Call to Worship

We gather together because God has called us.
We wait in expectant awe for God's appearing.

We are together, old and young, rich and poor.
We have come, believers and skeptics, to this place.

On the first Christian Pentecost, there were surprises:
the rush of violent wind and tongues of fire.

We tremble before the power of the Holy Spirit.
What will happen if we let the Spirit in?

On this Pentecost, we can receive the surprises of God.
We can be moved to speak and act in new ways.

ALL-With hesitant eagerness, we welcome the Spirit.
We will risk stepping into God's vision for us.

Hymn of Praise:
Come, Holy Spirit Red Hymnal: 239

SERMON NOTES

Series: Pentecost Sunday

Message: “Three Fundamental Truths Concerning Evangelism”

Text: Joel 2:28, 29; Acts 2:1-13

I. Introduction

One of the roles of the Holy Spirit is to point others to Jesus. Therefore, it is not surprising that when the Holy Spirit came upon the early believers that He empowered them to proclaim the Gospel. This morning I’d like for us to consider the three fundamental truths concerning evangelism.

II. What are the Three Fundamental Truths concerning, Evangelism?

- A. The first truth concerning evangelism is that there are multitudes in need of the good news of the Gospel.

- B. The second truth concerning evangelism is that we have been empowered to share this Gospel.

- C. The third truth concerning evangelism is that we are to do so.

Welcome and Announcements

Prelude: "This is My Father's World" Martha Wylie, Flute

Call to Worship

God is ready for us to seek what is eternal.

God wants us to find the truth beyond ourselves.

Our spirits long for God, as a deer longs for water.

We cry out for some evidence of God's presence.

God seldom comes as earthquake, wind, or fire.

Rather, in moments of sheer silence, God is revealed.

We come in quiet expectation to this holy place.

We approach the altar of God, hungry to be fed.

All are welcome here as brothers and sisters in Christ.

Here is a place to find healing and promise.

All-Our hope is in God, who gives us life and identity.

Our help is from God, who is in covenant with us.

SERMON NOTES

Occasion: Father's Day

Message: "The Perfect Father"

Text: Psalm 103:11-18; II Corinthians 6:16-18

I. Introduction

In Mark 10:18, Jesus declares, "No one is good – except God alone." Jesus could just as easily said, "No father is perfect except God alone." Throughout the scriptures God is referred to as a Father, who the believer can call his/hers Heavenly Father. This Father's Day I'd like for us to consider the type of Father God is.

II. What type of Father is God?

A. First of all, God is a Father who provides for His children's daily needs.

B. Secondly, God is a Father who is always there for His children.

C. Thirdly, God is a Father who is always ready to forgive His children.

III. Conclusion

Welcome and Announcements

Prelude: "Air" - J.S. Bach Martha Wylie, Flute

Call to Worship

Call to mind the mighty acts of God.
Remember the wonders God has revealed in your life.

All the ways of God are holy.

Nothing in heaven or earth is so great as God.

With a strong arm, God redeems the people.

Day by day, God leads us with a shepherd's care.

Even when the earth trembles, God is with us.

When lightning flashes, we are confident of God's care.

We have inherited the mission of the prophets.

We need the prophet's mantle from our God.

All-We have come to be equipped for our tasks.

We have gathered for renewal of our lives.

SERMON NOTES

Title: Called To Be Peacemaker

Text: Proverbs 15:1,2; 21:23; Matthew 5:1-12

I. Introduction

As believers who possess the peace of Christ, we are called to be peacemakers in this world in which we live.

This morning I'd like for us to consider what it means to be a peacemaker.

II. What does it mean to be a peacemaker?

A. First of all, to be a peacemaker is to speak words of healing.

B. Secondly, to be a peacemaker is to foster healthy communication with others.

C. Thirdly, to be a peacemaker is to be a person of prayer.

III. Conclusion
