God knows the intent of our hearts.

We are here to find out what is pleasing to God.

Title: "The Secret to a Satisfied Soul"

Text: Psalm 31:1-5; Luke 23:44-49

I. Introduction

In a world full of trials and adversities we all long for an inner peace and confidence which can sustain us, a satisfied soul which, grants inner strength. In short, we all desire the same satisfied soul our Lord Jesus demonstrates with the words, "Father into your hands I commit my spirit."

This morning I'd like for us to consider the question, "What is the secret to a satisfied soul?"

II. The secret to maintaining a satisfied soul.

- A. The first secret to a satisfied soul is to remember God is sovereign.

- B. The second Secret to a satisfied soul is to seek to obey the Lord.

- C. The third secret to a satisfied soul is to maintain one's prayer life.

Prelude: "Go To Dark Gethsemane" Joyce Keedy

Call to Worship Nancy Medinger
We have received through Jesus Christ a new covenant.
With broken bread and shared cup, we celebrate it.

This is a night of remembrance and celebration.

It is also a time of fear and betrayal.

At table with Christ, we receive a new commandment.
We are called to love one another as Christ loves us.

We are disciples of Jesus when we love one another.

Through love, we thank God for the gift of Jesus.

In thanks to God, we become a servant to others.

By Jesus' example, we become foot-washers.

All-We have come to learn from Jesus Christ.

We are ready to follow where Christ leads.

Let the ends of the earth remember and turn to God.
May all families of the nations worship together.

Dominion belongs to God who rules over all.

Future generations will hear of God's love.

We will proclaim deliverance to people yet unborn.

The law of God is written on our hearts.

Our minds hold in memory all that God requires.
